LAWN TENNIS.

Long Island Championship—Bill DeWitt Defeats Behr at Hightwood.

The final round in singles of the Long Island championship was reached yesterday on the courts of the Kings County Tennis Club, Brooklyn, the pair to reach the bracket being Samuel A. Westfall of the Kings County T. C. and Harry C. Martin of the Crescent A. C. Westfall gained his position after a hard tussle with S. H. Yoshell, while Martin was opposed by Walter Merrill Hall of the Hamilton Grange Tennis Club.

The latter match was of the feature of the day, as the players showed a general tactics on the men's side, and this made the contest a pleasure to watch.

Playing in his very best form Martin earned the first set, 6-3, but it appeared that Hall threw away some very easy shots, and he, in return, returned balls which would have given out of bounds had he allowed them to pass.

Most of these he drove against the net, losing the points to Martin. In the second set Hall was again at his best and he played brilliant tennis. He simply smothered Martin at every point of play and slammed out six games right after each other, getting the set, 4-0.

The fast work continued to take the steam out of the Hamilton Grange man. He opened the third set serving, and scratched out an advantage game only to fall down to Martin in the next three. Then Hall broke up again and it was game set game.

HORIZON'S CLOVER STAKES

CARMAN'S FILLY BEATS FIVE ACES IN A DRIVE.

Keene's Neatly Enjoys a Gallop With Top Weight—Ocean Bound Beats Helmet by a Head—Plate Glass Falls Dramatically in the Chase at Gravesend.

Horizon, a chestnut filly by Hastings-Fond Hope, bred by August Belmont and owned by R. F. Carman, won the $2,000 Clover Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, at Gravesend yesterday. Horizon, a favorite, showed stoutness of heart by overcoming the leadership of Five Aces, a filly by Disraeli-Anomaly, who led a lot of speed for her first heat.

The Silver Brook Farm's Helmet, by Hermis-Belland, always prominent, finished third, a length and a half back. C. I. Harrison started Princess Callaway, a handsome daughter of Brooklynite, out of the fast mare Floriole, in the event and she was highly spoken of. But she seemed green at the post, and breaking slowly she was outstrung and shut off in the scramble to the turn.

Then V. Powers took her to the middle of the track and she made up some ground. August Belmont's Rock Sand filly, bred by Clifford, in the event and she was highly spoken of. But she seemed green at the post, and breaking slowly she was outstrung and shut off in the scramble to the turn.

Then V. Powers took her to the middle of the track and she made up some ground. August Belmont's Rock Sand filly, bred by Clifford, in the event and she was highly spoken of. But she seemed green at the post, and breaking slowly she was outstrung and shut off in the scramble to the turn.
